11. [REDACTED] LIAISON Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.) called singing praises of glory on the Congressional Check List and asked that I be sure the item on Somalia, USSR patrol boats, be brought to the attention of Senator Dewey Bartlett (R., Okla.) and suggested 2:30 p.m. as a good time to call.

I called Phyllis Bacon, Assistant Chief Clerk, Senate Armed Services Committee, and notified her of Senator Percy's interest in bringing to Senator Bartlett's attention an item from today's publication and that I felt Ed Braswell or Clark McFadden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, should do this since Senator Bartlett is a Senate Armed Services Committee member. She said she would take care of this and later advised that it had been done.

25X1 14. [redacted] LEGISLATION Left a message for Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who was out of the office, and called Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, about the developments on H. R. 6227 (employee right of counsel bill) which while treating CIA, NSA and FBI differently than other Federal agencies, would still impinge upon the Director's statutory authority for terminating employees in the interest of the United States. In connection with my conversation in May of this year with Hogan, Slatinshek is not too keen on seeking a rule from the Parliamentarian requiring referral of the reported out bill to the House Armed Services Committee, but did think an attempt of a floor amendment might be in order and asked for some supporting material.

25X1 15. [redacted] LIAISON Jack Iams, Comptroller, reported that Chuck Snodgrass, Defense Subcommittee, House Appropriations Committee staff, was interested in spending some time with the NIO's, meeting chiefs of stations during their conferences in Washington and visiting [redacted] training establishments and NPIC. Mr. Iams will follow through on the latter two and we will take over on the former.

25X1 16. [redacted] LIAISON J.B. Cordaro, Office of Technology Assessment, requested a briefing from [redacted] OER, on the subject of food assessment in follow up of an earlier briefing he had with [redacted] both of OER. [redacted] 25X1A

25X1 17. [redacted] LIAISON Lewis Gulick, staff consultant to the House International Relations Committee, called to advise the Agency that the Committee was having installed in its main hearing room a permanent feeder line for radio and television. The line would be disconnected when not in use. He asked whether the Agency had any problem with this. After consulting with technical security, I called Gulick back and told him we had no insurmountable problem.

25X1 18. [redacted] INTELLIGENCE BRIEFING Barry Schochet, legislative assistant to Senator Richard Stone (D., Fla.) called to ask if the Senator could be briefed on Soviet technicians in Syria and the joint Jordanian-Syrian political command. After talking to [redacted] I called Schochet and arranged a tentative session for 2:00 p. m. Tuesday, 16 September.
